

Teaching for Peace and Human Rights

Special Focus: Methodology in a Multicultural World

Friday, March 30, 2012

United Nations, New York, ECOSOC Chamber/North Lawn Building

|          |  |   |
|----------|--|---|
| 10:00AM  | Opening Greetings   | Wayne Jacoby, PresidentGlobal Education MotivatorsTBD, Adelphi University         |
|          | Welcome/Background for the Day   | Teacher Chairperson   |
| 10:15AM  | Session One Opening Site Remarks (5-7 min. each)   | Teacher Facilitator 1   |
| 10:45 AM | Annual Global Educator Award  | Wayne Jacoby/GEM  |
| 10:55AM  | Session Two:KEYNOTE ADDRESS:Teaching Peace &amp; Human Rights in a Multicultural World | Teacher ChairpersonPhilippe Kridelka/Director (invited)UNESCO Liaison Office, NYC |
|          | Q&A With Sites   | Teacher Facilitator 2   |
| 11:45AM  | Session ThreeCross Cultural Discussion: Teaching Peace &amp; Human Rights                  | Teacher Facilitator3  |
| 12:30PM  | Break  |   |
| 1:30PM   | Session FourCross Cultural Agreements &amp; Plans: Site Final Remarks                      | Teacher Facilitator 4   |
| 2:30PM   | Closing Remarks  | Teacher ChairpersonWayne Jacoby, GEM  |
| 2:45PM   | Adjourn  |   |

---

Videoconferencing Sites:

(a). Burnaby School District, BC, Canada; (b) Colegio Carol Baur, Mexico City, MX;

(c) Karachi HS, Karachi, PK (d) University of Santo Tomas, Manila, Philippines (e)*United Nations, NY

* Additional countries will be represented at the UN

** Here is your opportunity to make other educators aware of your thoughts and practices, what works and does not work. Address what you feel is important for educators to do, and your hopes and concerns for the next generation.

Use this time to learn from each other across cultures, form collaborations and make pedagogical decisions that bring broader perspectives to students on human rights and how to build a culture of peace.